

The Tritone Jazz Trio:

The Trio Jazz Trio is a group of enthusiastic jazz musicians who perform in and around the metropolitan area. As jazz artists and aficionados, the Trio loves to swing. It's not uncommon to hear a sprinkling of Latin rhythms, or some tight BeBop phrases, but the trio always keeps it in the groove. Please check out our live recordings, reviews, and upcoming performances. We look forward to sharing music with you.

Capitol Lab Band:

Thomas Kitchen also plays with the Capitol Lab Band, an 18-piece Big Band in the "modern" style, playing mostly original compositions and other high-energy charts by some of the top composers, artists, and arrangers today.

Other Combos:

Thomas also plays with the Sharp Five, the Ian Dylan Trio, and the Not 2 Cool Jazz Trio, and works as a sideman in various ensembles as needed.
